

What's the Difference?

Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. Jude 1:3

Inspiration and Inerrancy of Scripture	Verbal, Plenary Inspiration. Absolutely Inerrant	"The books of Scripture firmly, faithfully, and without error teach that truth which God, for the sake of our salvation, wished to see confided to the Sacred Scriptures." (Catechism, 2nd ed.)	"God's inspiration is confined to the original languages and utterances, not the many translations." (GOAA)  "While the Bible is treasured as a valuable written record of God's revelation, it does not contain wholly that revelation." (GOAA)	Inspired and inerrant. (LCMS)  Inspired but not inerrant. (ELCA)	The Bible is inspired. "For some, that means the Bible is inerrant. For others, it means that even though the Bible is culturally conditioned and not necessarily factual or even always true, it breathes with the life of God." (PCUSA)	The OT and NT contain all things necessary for salvation. (CofE)	Inspired and inerrant in original manuscripts, "and have been transmitted to the present without corruption of any essential doctrine." (WC)

Salvation	Salvation is by Grace Through Faith Alone	Received at baptism; may be lost by mortal sin; regained by penance	"The acceptance of Christ as the Savior through confession in Christ as the True God is the highest gift given to the believer by the Holy Spirit....acceptance is his own choice through his own free will. This is why one is responsible for his own fate." (GOAA)	"Faith in Christ is the only way for men to obtain personal reconciliation with God, that is, forgiveness of sins" (LCMS)	"We are able to choose God because God first chose us." (PCUSA)	"We are accounted righteous before God, only for the merit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ by Faith, and not for our own works or deservings." (Art. XI)	"We are accounted righteous before God only for the merit of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, by faith, and not for our own works." (UMC)  "The final destiny of each person is determined by God's grace & that person's response, evidenced inevitably by a moral character which results from that individual's personal and volitional choices." (WC)
Eternal Hell	Affirmed	Affirmed. "The chief punishment of hell is eternal separation from God." (Catech 1030)	Affirmed	Affirmed	Affirmed by some. "In a 1996 Presbyterian Panel survey only 51 percent of members and 46 percent of pastors said they believed in hell." (PCUSA)	Affirmed	Affirmed. "Hell with its everlasting misery and separation from God is the final abode of those who neglect [God's] great salvation." (WC)
